Quiz Answer Key

Module M1-2

1. The default direction for angles is counterclockwise

    a. True.

2. How do you adjust the view to display the entire drawing in the drawing window?

    c. Double-click the mouse wheel.

3. How are coordinates defined in the AutoCAD Cartesian workspace?

    a. X value, Y value

4. When using the Line command, once you've finished drawing your line segments, how do you exit the command?

    c. Press either the Enter key or the Spacebar on the keyboard.

5. When using Dynamic Input, how do you switch between entry fields?

    b. Press the Tab key on your keyboard to move between fields.

6. Which of the following is not an available Unit Type to choose from?

    b. Metric

7. By default, which cardinal direction does the angle of zero point to?

    c. East

8. Which of the following is not a method to remove an entity from the drawing?

    d. Select the entity, then press <Ctrl>+Backspace on the keyboard.