Quiz Answer Key

Module M1-9

1. When creating Multiline text, what do the two points you select define?

b. The text's position and the width of the text lines.

2. What occurs when you double-click a text object?

b. The text becomes editable.

3. How do you adjust the justification (e.g., left, right, centered) of a Multiline object during editing?

d. Use tools in the Text Editor contextual tab's Paragraph panel on the ribbon.

4. The abc that appears at the first corner of a Multiline text box reflects what?

a. The current Text Style.

5. When adding or editing Multiline text, pressing Enter ends the MTEXT command.

b. False

6. Which of the following is not a setting in the Text Style Manager?

a. Uppercase

7. Which statement is accurate about Multileaders?

c. The leader and its text (or block) are a single object.

8. You can use either pre-defined or user-supplied blocks in your Multileader style.

a. True