Quiz Answer Key

Module M1-3

1. What happens when you configure Object Snap settings in the Drawing Settings dialog box?

   d. They become available for selecting points as needed.

2. Which object types are compatible with the Center Object Snap?

   d. Circles, arcs, and ellipses.

3. When can you use an Object Snap override from the context menu?

   c. When a command is active and prompts for a point selection.

4. Accessing one or two reference points to locate a calculated point to use is known as what?

   a. Object Snap Tracking

5. Snap and Grid cannot be enabled at the same time. If one is enabled, the other is disabled.

   b. False

6. Which Status Bar settings must be enabled to use Object Snap Tracking?

   b. Object Snap Tracking and Object Snap.

7. When using Object Snap Tracking, what appears at a reference point once it is acquired?

   c. A green cross.