

Module M1-6 Review Quiz

1. Objects on frozen layers remain visible in the drawing but cannot be modified.
 - a. True
 - b. False

2. How can you reassign an existing object to a different layer?
 - a. Redraw the object on the desired layer.
 - b. Use the Move command to relocate it.
 - c. Set the desired layer as current, select the object, and press <Enter>.
 - d. Select the object and choose the target layer from the Layer Control.

3. If you've completed drawing walls in a floor plan and want them visible but protected from being edited or deleted, what should you do?
 - a. Lock the layer.
 - b. Switch to a different current layer.
 - c. Turn the layer off.
 - d. Freeze the layer.

4. What is the name of the layer that is present in all progeCAD drawings?
 - a. 0 (zero)
 - b. progeCAD
 - c. Layer
 - d. Start

5. When objects on a specific layer are not visible and do not regenerate with the drawing, the layer is:
 - a. Thawed
 - b. Current
 - c. Frozen
 - d. Locked

6. A drawing file used as a starting point for new drawings is referred to as a:

- a. Setup File
- b. Prototype
- c. Template
- d. Seed File