

Exam Answer Key

Skills Exam 1 – Basics for Beginners

1. When the scroll wheel on the mouse is rolled forward, what happens to the content within the drawing editor?
  - a. It appears magnified.
2. What does a base point represent in the Move and Copy commands?
  - a. A fixed point used consistently for moving or copying.
3. How are frozen layers defined?
  - d. Layers are invisible, and their objects do not regenerate with the drawing.
4. What is the term for a file designed to serve as the foundation for new drawings?
  - a. Template
5. Which tool enables automatic snapping to endpoints, midpoints, intersections, and similar points?
  - c. Object Snap
6. What is the purpose of Entity Snap Tracking?
  - c. It allows you to locate new reference points in relation to one or two existing points.
7. To create a parallelogram that functions as a single unified object, you should use:
  - b. A Rectangle.
8. Specifying a selection that appears green with a dashed border indicates what?
  - d. It is a Crossing Selection.
9. A Layout is intended to emulate what?
  - c. The intended paper output.
10. When you double-click an existing MTEXT, what happens to the Ribbon?
  - b. It adds a contextual Text Editor tab and makes it current.