Exam Answer Key

Skills Exam 4 – Architectural Design

1. The AEC–3D Architecture ribbon tab can be found in which workspace?

   b. Ribbon Full

2. How can you access the Free Orbit tool without invoking the command?

   c. Shift key + Hold down the mouse wheel.

3. What does progeCAD display when an AEC – 3D Architecture tool is selected for the first time?

   a. The Import AEC Family dialog.

4. Which of the following is not a Level of Detail setting?

   d. No Detail

5. How would you change the style of an existing door in your model?

   b. Select the object or objects, then choose the new style from the Style pulldown in the Properties (or Quick Properties) Palette.

6. How do you increase the view depth of a Section Line?

   c. Select the Section Line and use the arrow grip to change the depth.

7. How is the Reverse Elevation Line visually represented in the Section Elevation ribbon panel?

   a. A diamond shape with the letter E in the middle.

8. If something changes in your model, how do your Sections or Elevations reflect the change?

   d. Use the Regenerate 2D Section/Elevation tool.

9. What is the name of the command that allows you to print or plot multiple files or layouts?

   b. Publish

10. What named object is applied to layouts prior to publishing them?

    c. Page Setup