

Quiz Answer Key

Module M4-3

1. What is the workflow to use in order to change an existing object's style?

- d. Select the object or objects, then choose the new style from the Style pulldown in the Properties (or Quick Properties) Palette.

2. To improve your graphics performance, what Level of Detail might you switch to?

- a. Low Detail.

3. Some objects are sometimes used as placeholders until their style is fully developed.

- a. True

4. Which of the following is not a benefit of inserting objects into the plan view?

- b. A new Drawing Level will be automatically generated.

5. When generating a roof with the roof tool, it will begin to generate itself after which point is selected?

- c. the 3rd

6. Once a roof has been added with the roof tool, how can you make adjustments to its slope and overhang?

- d. Select the roof, and change the entries in the Properties Palette